

The 2007 Edition of ECAS EU Funding Guides for NGOs available soon

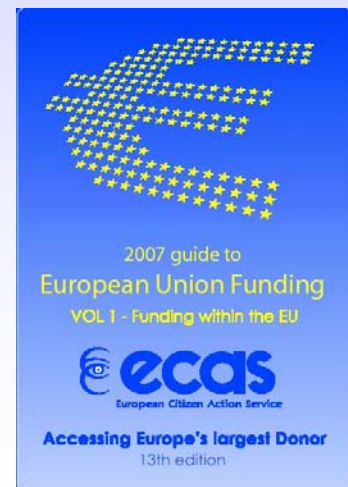

The EU provides a wealth of funding opportunities—a budget of some 126.5 billion making it the world's largest institutional donor. To enable you take full advantage of this, ECAS is pleased to present the 13th Edition of its funding guides. These are a must since this year is the first of the new financial perspectives, which determine EU priorities and spending for 2007-13.

Our guides:

- Advise you on how to go about applying
- Make it easy for you to find your way around more than 80 available European Commission funds
- Give you the right people to contact for each programme
- Also list other sources of funding

They contain:

- A full chapter on the 2007-13 financial perspectives
- Extensive information on the restructuring of EU external aid
- Information on the new structural funds which can provide support for a wide range of projects

For easy handling, it comes in TWO volumes:

Volume one: Tips for fundraisers; new financial perspectives; funding programmes for projects inside the EU, including programmes on health, social policy, youth, environment, and culture; structural funds; foundations
Price: 40€

Volume two: Funding programmes for projects outside the EU, including development aid, human rights, gender equality, AIDS initiatives; European Neighbourhood Policy for countries bordering the EU; Pre-accession Aid for the Western Balkans; foundations
Price: 35€

An amazing price for exceptional information!

- Set of both volumes (Vol 1 & Vol 2 together): 60€
- Possibility of further reductions for Bulk Orders: Please contact Vanessa Billen at publications@ecas.org or tel: +32 2 548 04 90
- And to top this off, with purchase of the guide, a special 3 months free membership offer. Free membership consists of email alerts of calls for proposals, important meetings on Civil Society, NGO Activity and EU Institutions, 3 different Newsletters & free access to legal advice on EU citizen rights

Interested? Please fill in the order form & return it to us.